DDC 4*	This engaging, four-hour course focuses on driver attitudes to prevent crashes and reinforce good driving skills and habits. It includes a broad array of behind-the-wheel topics, current federal and state laws, and is easily customized to address local needs and driving conditions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Traffic violators who are required by the court to take a driver improvement course • Drivers with minor violations • First-time offenders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refresh and improve driving skills • Retain driver's license privileges • Ticket dismissal • Point reduction 	4 hours	2 days*
DDC Online	Based on the DDC 8/6 course, this Web-based program presents real-life driving situations and hazards in an engaging and interactive way. The online format is convenient for courts that have little space for classroom training, limited manpower or geographical factors that restrict in-person attendance. In addition, the online process ensures that students stay engaged throughout the course by requiring that they respond to – and stay actively engaged with – course content. Finally, the course curriculum is adaptable to a variety of participants and circumstances (e.g. seniors, urban driving, winter driving, etc.).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Traffic violators who are required by the court to take a driver improvement course • Drivers with serious violations, including reckless driving and excessive speeding • Repeat offenders • Drivers in a remote location or who are otherwise unable to attend a live class 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refresh and improve driving skills • Retain driver's license privileges • Divert early developing bad driver attitudes • Point reduction 	2 – 4 hours	n/a
Alive at 25*	This highly interactive course focuses on the unique challenges faced by young adult and newly licensed drivers ages 15-25. It's also ideal for young drivers who incur traffic violations. More than one million young drivers have benefitted from this course.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Young drivers in a graduated driver's license (GDL) program • Traffic violators ages 15-24 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teach and improve driving skills and behaviors • Teach the positive consequences of making good driving decisions • Driver retention privileges, ticket dismissal and/or point reduction 	4 hours	2 to 2-1/2 days* (based on training center requirements)
DDC 8/6*	This engaging eight- or six-hour course includes DDC 4 content and expands on it for a more in-depth examination of crash avoidance behaviors and safe driving practices. DDC 8/6 is trusted by courts, municipalities, educators and insurance companies for its comprehensive content and rigorous learning standards.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Traffic violators who are required by the court to take a driver improvement course • Drivers with serious violations, including reckless driving and excessive speeding • Repeat offenders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refresh and improve driving skills • Retain driver's license privileges • Divert early developing bad driver attitudes • Point reduction 	8 or 6 hours	2-3 days
