

Build an impressive award display through your yearly participation

Nothing so dramatically sets you apart from your competition, and makes employees proud to be part of your organization, as a visible display of the industry recognition you receive. For many of our members, their safety awards from the National Safety Council are featured front and center.

All program awards are highly suitable for internal or public awards presentations and will help you gain greater respect from your customers, community and peers.

Whenever an individual employee, workplace team or your organization as a whole achieves an important safety goal, make sure to mark the occasion with your participation in the NSC Safety Awards program.

NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL Safety Awards Program

ORDERING GUIDE

EXCLUSIVELY FOR NSC MEMBERS

Show your team, clients and visitors your ongoing commitment to safety

Acknowledging your employees' efforts and showcasing how they help make your organization a paragon of safety, is a time-honored best practice in building a better organization. And our members have their very own way to recognize noteworthy achievement: the NSC Safety Awards program.

We offer awards for both organizations and individuals, designed to acknowledge injury-free and illness-free workplaces, significant improvements in safety, safe driving, outstanding work records and more. You can report your own safety data for award eligibility right on the accompanying order form — no lengthy paperwork required.

As you know, instilling employee pride and encouraging safe practices is a bottom-line decision: the small cost of awards can be recovered many times over in safer operations, increased productivity and enhanced workplace awareness.

Simply choose the awards you wish and return the order form in the enclosed business reply envelope OR fax to NSC. And remember, this is just one of the many member benefits that is yours to enjoy from the world's leading safety organization.

About self-reporting of data

To make award application as easy as possible for National Safety Council members, eligibility is determined based on self-reported data. The criteria we ask for is readily available from your standard OSHA recordkeeping.

Please review the program criteria for each award to determine if you are eligible for consideration. Your application with supporting data must be submitted within 60 days from the date that the time criteria were met. Any organization recording a fatality will be disqualified, with the exception of the Significant Improvement Award.

The National Safety Council reserves the right to audit the data submitted or provide historical recordkeeping. NSC reserves the right to change, without notice, any portion of the Safety Awards Program concerning, but not limited to, rules, policies, awards, deliver dates/methods and fees.
