

Electrical connections and equipment inspection checklist

Date inspected:			Inspected by:
Item	Yes	No	Comments, deficiencies and action required	Date corrected
Is all electric equipment properly grounded?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are panel boards adequately lighted and readily accessible, and are the controls properly identified?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are all electrical cords in good condition and properly used with no "permanent" extension cords being substituted for fixed wiring?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are switches guarded properly to prevent inadvertent or incidental starting?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Is adequate lighting provided throughout the facility, especially at stairs and other hazardous areas?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are there any live but empty light sockets or live but damaged switches?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are fuses (or circuit breakers) on lighting and small appliance circuits of proper capacity, and is the use of multiple plugs monitored to prevent overloading of circuits?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are switches for electrical equipment located so they can be easily reached in the event of an emergency, without having to lean on or against metal equipment?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		