Charlotte-Plaza Carrier Reaches Milestone

A/District Manager Angela Curtis and Postmaster Tom Callahan present Rural Carrier Joe Gribble with his Million Mile Award.

Rural Carrier Joe Gribble became the district's thirteenth recipient of the prestigious Million Mile Award for the year during a surprise ceremony at Charlotte's Plaza Station. Acting District Manager Angela Curtis presented Gribble with a plaque and safe driving pin before reading his letter of commendation.

Curtis congratulated Gribble on more than 30 years of government service and for maintaining safe working habits during his career. "Driving, especially in Charlotte, is a difficult thing. Making your deliveries and taking care of your customers while doing that is an even greater challenge, so it says a lot that you've done your job safely for such a long time," said Curtis.

Charlotte Postmaster Tom Callahan also thanked Gribble for his dedication to safety. "That kind of attention to details is one of the reasons Plaza maintains a good record for safety. I appreciate you taking to the time to make safety a priority every day."

Human Resources Manager David Mills and Safety Specialist Aileen Livingston also attended the event and applauded Manager, Customer Services Steve Baxley for recognizing Gribble's accomplishment.
