Dear Friends,

I was happy to learn that the WVU Greater Morgantown Safe Communities Initiative recently achieved the Safe Communities accreditation. This goes to show the great work being done in Morgantown to reduce injuries and make neighborhoods safer.

I'm very proud to know that fellow West Virginians are fighting and winning in our state's efforts against drug and alcohol abuse. It is men and women like you that inspire me to do the work that I do every day in Congress.

As you continue to make our communities safer and better, I have been working in Congress to guarantee that federal funding for programs that work continue to flow into our state and communities. Many of these programs focus on community efforts in prevention and treatment for substance abuse, such as the Drug-Free Communities program.

I will continue to fight for legislation that will end the devastating effects of drug and alcohol abuse in West Virginia. It will take all of us working in our communities to solve this tragic crisis. Again, congratulations on your achievement and I know we can create a brighter future for all of West Virginia.

Sincerely,

Evan Jenkins
