

27 HOMELAND SECURITY IN THE WORKPLACE

---

QUIZ (10 POINTS)

True/False (3 points)

1. The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) has been given responsibility for protecting the U.S. infrastructure.
  - a. true
  - b. false
2. The four tiers of regulatory control are based on risk.
  - a. true
  - b. false
3. Chemical facility protection rules apply to all facilities where chemicals are used.
  - a. true
  - b. false

Multiple Choice (3 points)

4. The chemical facility security issues identified by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may be categorized as _____.
  - a. chemical release
  - b. theft/diversion
  - c. sabotage/contamination
  - d. all of the above
5. Before a high-risk facility negotiates a site security plan with DHS, facility management should _____.
  - a. obtain advice from an expert consultant.
  - b. ensure that employers practice evacuation.
  - c. invite DHS to inspect the facility.
  - d. all of the above
6. Some facilities, with federal controls already in place, may be excluded from chemical facility protection rules. These include _____.
  - a. railroads
  - b. public water systems
  - c. port authorities
  - d. all of the above

Short Essay (4 points)

7. The DHS has divided the chemical release category of potential threat into three subcategories. List and briefly describe each.

8. Discuss some challenges for the safety manager of a high-risk facility.