Using a portable generator?

- Don’t use portable generators indoors or in an enclosed space such as a basement or garage.
- Don’t place generators near doors, windows or ventilation shafts where carbon monoxide can enter and build up.
- Make sure generators have 3 to 4 feet of clearance on all sides and above to ensure adequate ventilation.