

22 TRANSPORTATION SAFETY PROGRAMS

QUIZ 1 (15 POINTS TOTAL)

True/False (4 points)

1. Indirect costs from a collision may be several times the direct costs.
 - a. true
 - b. false
2. Drivers involved in a collision should complete a collision report form for their supervisor as soon as they return to the office.
 - a. true
 - b. false
3. Researchers have reported a close relationship between one's ability to drive safely and certain personal traits.
 - a. true
 - b. false
4. When a trailer is being loaded or unloaded, the preferred location of chocks is at the front wheels.
 - a. true
 - b. false

Multiple Choice (3 points)

5. What causes the majority of all motor vehicle collisions?
 - a. driver error or poor operating practices
 - b. road conditions
 - c. mechanical failure
 - d. alcohol or drug abuse
6. Job application forms for drivers should ask about:
 - a. safe driver awards received
 - b. number of convictions for traffic violations
 - c. seasons of the year and geographical areas in which applicants operated vehicles
 - d. all of the above
7. According to statistics, what is the safest means of moving passengers and freight?
 - a. automobiles
 - b. buses
 - c. trains
 - d. airlines

Short Essay (2 points)

14. What are some of the typical indirect costs of a vehicle collision? (List at least three.)
15. What are the five basic collision-prevention procedures that should be included in a driver safety program?

QUIZ 2 (13 POINTS TOTAL)

True/False (4 points)

1. Fueling requires certain precautions to avoid fires. When the tank is being filled, the metal spout of the hose should not contact the tank in any way.
 - a. true
 - b. false
2. Safety apparel suitable for battery work includes a face mask for respiratory protection.
 - a. true
 - b. false
3. Fire doors should be installed between battery-charging rooms and adjacent areas where flammable liquids are handled and stored.
 - a. true
 - b. false
4. Gasoline should never be used for any cleaning tasks.
 - a. true
 - b. false

Multiple Choice (4 points)

5. A preventive maintenance program for motorized equipment should be based on either _____ or _____.
- a. age of vehicle
 - b. mileage
 - c. operating hours of the equipment
 - d. period of time since last inspection

Short Essay (1 point)

13. What five elements should be included in a vehicle safety program?