

Defensive Driving Courses: INSTRUCTOR AUTHORIZATION

National Safety Council Defensive Driving Course Instructors are the core to our proven success and global recognition. They are committed to teaching our standardized curriculum guaranteeing consistency in content and facilitation while providing a positive learning and interactive classroom experience.

NSC has made it easier than ever to become a certified Defensive Driving Course Instructor through our eLearning Instructor Authorization Course. Through the web-based course, you can:

- Schedule training at your convenience
- Eliminate travel planning and related expenses
- Experience less time away from work

What candidate instructors will learn:

The eLearning Instructor Authorization Course combines the core knowledge and principles of defensive driving with proven-effective facilitation methods. Candidate instructors learn the necessary skills to teach a successful NSC driver safety program through interactive, scenario-based training. After successfully completing the program, instructors will be able to:

- Teach drivers with varying skill levels, attitudes and behaviors
- Understand how to identify each driver's strengths and weaknesses
- Provide personalized, practical solutions to problematic situations
- Demonstrate the knowledge and confidence of a driver safety professional
- Deliver an engaging, positive learning experience
- Motivate people to be safer and more responsible drivers

Getting started with NSC Instructor Authorization

To become a certified instructor, NSC recommends candidates first attend the classroom course they wish to teach. They must then successfully complete the following eLearning Instructor Authorization Course units:

- Defensive Driving Course Foundation: Introduces defensive driving principles, reviews standards and regulations and discusses course-specific terminology.
- Defensive Driving Course Facilitation: Learn the instructor's role, responsibility and proper classroom management.
- Choice Theory: Read the book Choice Theory by William Glasser, MD, learn and apply Reality Therapy and Choice Theory techniques to help students identify and adopt new behaviors.
- Course-specified Training: Covers the curriculum for the Defensive Driving Course you plan to teach. See page 2 for course details and pricing.

Defensive Driving Courses:

INSTRUCTOR AUTHORIZATION

We offer instructor-led driver safety courses ranging from 3 hours up to 8 hours in length. We provide various programs based on driver experience, skill level, driving behavior and vehicle type. Most importantly, we design our programs based on research and scientific data ensuring drivers learn practical safe driving techniques and behaviors.

The Defensive Driving Course

The NSC flagship driver safety program provides participants with comprehensive defensive driving knowledge and safe driving techniques. Instructors have the flexibility to teach the course in 4-, 6- or 8-hours.

Professional Truck Driver

3- or 4-hour course addresses the most challenging and unsafe driving situations for truck drivers by emphasizing hazard recognition scenarios and real-life driving situations to enhance learner's experience and retention.

Alive at 25®

4-hour young adult program teaches learning-to-drive and newly licensed drivers how to take control of situations by taking responsibility for their driving behaviors.

Attitudinal Dynamics of Driving and Chronic Offender (two separate courses)

8-hour advanced behavior-based courses for drivers with poor driving habits and risky driving behaviors, or those who have multiple traffic violations or had their license suspended.

State Courts against Road Rage

4-hour program to educate and reduce recidivism among drivers charged with serious motor violations.

The Instructor Resource Kit is required to complete the eLearning Instructor Certification Course. It includes your Instructor Manual, Multimedia Presentation, Participant Course Guide, Certificate of Completion, Reference Material and Administrative Guidelines and your first year of Instructor Certification.
