

Language for NSC First Aid Successful Completion Cards

Notice

Expiration dates for all NSC First Aid and CPR cards may not exceed two years. This affects all NSC First Aid and CPR programs.

All completion cards must be printed or typed. Hand-written completion cards are not acceptable.

If Using the Combined First Aid/CPR Successful Completion Card

NSC First Aid, CPR & AED	If First Aid, CPR and AED are taught for adult, child and infant, show: Standard First Aid Adult, Child and Infant CPR &amp; AED	If First Aid, CPR and AED are taught for adult only, show: Standard First Aid Adult CPR AED	If First Aid, CPR and AED are taught for adult and child only, show: Standard First Aid Adult and Child CPR &amp; AED
--------------------------	--	---	---

If Using Separate First Aid and CPR Successful Completion Cards

Other NSC Courses	First Aid Successful Completion Card Should Read...	CPR Successful Completion Card Should Read...
NSC Emergency Medical Response	Emergency Medical Response	Basic Life Support for Health Care Providers
NSC Basic Life Support for Health Care & Professional Rescuers	N/A	Basic Life Support for Health Care Providers
NSC Advanced First Aid, CPR & AED	Advanced First Aid	Depends on the level of CPR taught. If professional-level (Appendix A) is taught it should read: Basic Life Support for Health Care Providers If lay rescuer-level is taught it should read: Adult, Child and Infant CPR &amp; AED – if CPR and AED are taught for adult, child and infant Adult CPR &amp; AED – if only adult was taught Adult and Child CPR &amp; AED – if only adult and child were taught
NSC CPR & AED	N/A	Adult, Child and Infant CPR &amp; AED – if CPR and AED are taught for adult, child and infant Adult CPR &amp; AED – if only adult was taught Adult and Child CPR &amp; AED – if only adult and child were taught
NSC First Aid	Standard First Aid	N/A
NSC Pediatric First Aid, CPR & AED	Pediatric First Aid Pediatric First Aid Plus (for courses taught using the pediatric supplement to meet regulatory requirements.)	Adult, Child and Infant CPR and AED – if CPR and AED are taught for adult, child and infant Pediatric CPR &amp; AED – if CPR and AED are taught for child and infant