

Coalition Meeting Agenda
June 13, 2017 from 9 am – noon (eastern)
Kaiser Permanente Center for Total Health
700 Second Street, N.E., Washington, D.C.

- Welcome 9:00 am
- Debbie Hersman, President and CEO of the National Safety Council and Chair of Road to Zero
 - U.S. Department of Transportation Speaker
- Saving Lives on our Roadways at the Merging Intersection of People & Technology
- How Can Safe Systems Compensate for Human Behavior Limitations? 9:25 am
Director of the MIT² (Minds in Technology) Research Laboratories Peter Hancock from the University of Central Florida
Q&A 9:55 am
 - Modifying the Curve of Future Technology Development with Adoption, Product Development & Gaps in Consumer Education 10:00 am
Senior Executive Engineer Chuck Gulash from Toyota Motor North American Research Institute and Collaborative Safety Research Center
Q&A 10:30 am
- Workgroup Breakouts 10:35 am
- Working Groups 10:40 – 11:25 am
Please bring your draft safety priority statement worksheet(s) with evidence based solutions. Come prepared to collaborate with a group to develop a statement and possible action plans. Those on the webcast or unable to attend may submit their worksheets in advance and be assigned to a workgroup for follow up activity. Meeting breakout include topics ranked highest in the recent Coalition survey:
 - ✓ Distraction
 - ✓ Impairment
 - ✓ Speed
 - ✓ Safety of vulnerable users
 - ✓ Infrastructure
 - ✓ Safety Culture/Safe Systems
 - Report outs from working groups 11:30 – 11:45 am
 - Next Steps 11:50 am
- Close/Wrap-Up 11:55 am
- Debbie Hersman