

DDC Instructor Certification eLearning Program

NSC Driver Safety Training

Become a Certified NSC DDC Instructor

The National Safety Council has made it easy to become a Certified Defensive Driving Course (DDC) Instructor with new eLearning Instructor Certification Courses. With eLearning training, you can:

- Schedule training at your convenience
- Eliminate travel planning and expenses
- Experience less time away from work

What participants will learn

- How best to facilitate a classroom Defensive Driving program
- How to train the most impactful principles of Defensive Driving
- How to influence the safety behaviors of drivers
- How to keep participants engaged and involved
- How to lead group activities
- How to get drivers to internalize their learnings in order to change their attitudes and behaviors

Course features

This course uses the latest teaching tools to make the content more engaging, clear and memorable. In fact, each module is learner-driven (to accommodate different learning paces) and includes several interactive elements including:

- Fully narrated with advanced graphics, videos, and animations
- Highly interactive activities
- Bookmarking; stop at any time and pick up where you left off
- PC/Mac/Tablet compatible
- Knowledge tests and quizzes

Mastery of the content is crucial. So knowledge tests are incorporated throughout the course. Moreover, each unit ends with a final exam. All tests require a score of 100% to pass. If you don't pass, you can re-take exams in the eLearning modules after you've reviewed the module content.

National Safety Council Defensive Driving Courses deliver standardized, consistent curriculum ensuring uniformity in content management, instructor presentation and facilitation techniques. Our Programs are research-driven and designed, written and reviewed by leading safety experts, driver education professionals, statisticians and data analysts and an international advisory committee.

Getting started with eLearning

To become certified to teach an NSC Defensive Driving Course, follow the steps below:

1. NSC recommends the Instructor Candidate attend an actual DDC class of the course they wish to teach.
2. Successfully complete the following DDC eLearning sessions:

Unit 1 – DDC Foundation: Introduces Defensive Driving Principles, reviews standards and regulations required to facilitate NSC courses and discusses terminology, including defensive driving, preventable collisions, crash vs. collision, and the DDC Collision Prevention Formula.

Unit 2 – DDC Facilitation: Covers the instructor’s role and responsibility in the classroom and helps the instructor identify learning styles of participants; you will learn techniques of proper classroom management.

Unit 3 – Choice Theory: You will read Choice Theory by William Glasser, MD. and pass an online test with 100% accuracy before proceeding to the online module; you will learn to apply the Choice Theory techniques in DDC programs to help learners identify and adopt new behaviors.

Unit 4 – DDC Course-Specified Instructor Training: You will learn the course curriculum for the specific course you plan to instruct.

3. Be observed by a training center representative instructing the course in a classroom. Upon successful completion of these requirements, you will be issued an instructor credential.
