“Safety is about life—it’s personal. When you go beyond the risks or the steps it takes to avoid them, you feel the result: being healthy and unharmed at work, getting home safe and being with those you love; having your co-workers stay safe at work — without being impaired or addicted, or being injured...or worse.”

– Lorraine Martin
President & CEO, National Safety Council

“Safety has never been more important — and neither have safety professionals. Thanks to these safety heroes, we’re advancing our mission to save lives and prevent injuries, from the workplace to anyplace. As a result, more people can live their lives to the fullest, both on and off the clock.”

– Lorraine Martin
President & CEO, National Safety Council
