

Following highway crashes,

Falls from heights

is the second leading unintentional fatal workplace event.

Falls from heights is the single most hazardous injury within the construction industry, representing 38% of all construction fatalities.

#of fatal falls
Overall 660
Construction & Utilities 348

52%

#of non-fatal falls
Overall 49,210
Construction & Utilities 10,150

20%

On average, 2 workers die each workday as a result of a fall

To learn more, visit nsc.org/falls

Construction & Utilities Division