

National Safety Council

Position/Policy Statement

Substance Abuse Education in Schools

The National Safety Council promotes substance abuse education in schools, and in fact, should be a leader in the promotion of this education.

This position statement reflects the opinions of the National Safety Council but not necessarily those of each member of the organization.

Approved by Governmental Relations Committee, October 27, 1996

Approved by Board of Directors, October 30, 1996